by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 70, Chapter 1, Part 3, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

(a) If the wildlife resources agency contracts with a farmer to farm lands owned or under the control of this state under § 70-1-302(a)(6) or another law, not less than sixty (60) days before the expiration of the contract, the agency shall offer the farmer the opportunity to renegotiate the contract with the agency prior to accepting requests for proposals for the contract.

(b) If the farmer and the agency agree to renew the contract, then the farmer may renew the contract for an additional three (3) five-year terms if the farmer and agency are able to agree to terms during each renewal period; provided, that, if the farmer has been under contract with the agency for twenty (20) or more consecutive years, upon the expiration of the next term of the contract, the farmer is not entitled to renegotiate the contract with the agency prior to the agency accepting requests for proposals for the contract.

(c) Subsection (b) does not prohibit a farmer from bidding on a contract after being under contract with the agency for twenty (20) or more consecutive years.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect July 1, 2023, the public welfare requiring it, and applies to contracts executed, amended, or renewed on or after such date.

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 69-9-216, is amended by adding the following new subsection (h) and redesignating the existing subsection (h) accordingly:

(h)

(1) Notwithstanding § 69-9-218(a)(3), it is a violation of this chapter, subject to the penalties in § 69-9-219, for a person to travel at a speed greater than a no-wake speed within the no-wake zones established by the agency pursuant to rules promulgated in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5.

(2) The agency may extend a no-wake zone up to five hundred feet (500') from a commercial dock or marina, to be marked with buoys, if such no-wake zone extension would be in the best interest of boating safety.

(3) This subsection (h) does not prevent prosecution of a person for a violation of § 69-9-218(a)(3), or another applicable law.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect July 1, 2023, the public welfare requiring it.

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 7-3-303, is amended by adding the following new subsection (d):

(d)

(1) Notwithstanding another law to the contrary, the metropolitan council or beer board of a metropolitan government with a population of more than five hundred thousand (500,000), according to the 2020 federal census or a subsequent federal census, shall not, within a tourism development zone, regulate the sale of beer, as defined in § 57-5-101, or other alcoholic beverages, as defined in § 57-4-102, for on-premises consumption by a licensee who holds a license to sell alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises within the zone issued pursuant to title 57, chapter 4. The alcoholic beverage commission has the exclusive authority to regulate the sale of beer and alcoholic beverages within the boundaries of the zone within the metropolitan government. The commission shall employ an amount of regulatory and law enforcement staff sufficient to adequately enforce this subsection (d) as determined by the commission.

(2) As used in this subsection (d), "tourism development zone" and "zone" mean the tourism development zone created pursuant to chapter 88 of this title in a metropolitan government with a population of more than five hundred thousand (500,000), according to the 2020 federal census or a subsequent federal census.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 57-4-101, is amended by adding the following new subsection:

(q) Notwithstanding another law to the contrary, a person holding a license issued under this chapter within the boundaries of a metropolitan government with a population of more than five hundred thousand (500,000), according to the 2020 federal census or a subsequent federal census, may sell beer for on-premises consumption solely pursuant to such license issued under this chapter. A permit or license other than the license issued under this chapter is not required for the licensed establishment to engage in such sales of beer for on-premises consumption and the issuer of that license has the authority to enforce all laws related to such sales.

SECTION 3. This act takes effect January 1, 2024, the public welfare requiring it.
